Our church has been in Carlisle since 1895. By describing ourselves as an Evangelical Church, we are saying that sharing the good news about Jesus is one of the most important aspects of our church life. A team of elders and deacons lead the church and we are a member of the Evangelical Alliance.

We have a membership of around 240 adults and about 100 children across all ages. We have three Sunday services with associated children's and youth work and a series of small groups meet through the week. We have good links with other churches in the city. (See www.prayforthecity.org.uk)
